

Hull History Centre Fees & Charges from 1 Jan 2024

Introduction

There is no charge to visit the History Centre to do your own research in our search room and library. You can also borrow library books and use our PCs and microfilm readers free of charge. However, we do make a charge for some of our services, including printing and copying.

Photocopies or PDFs

Paper documents in good condition which are A3 sized or smaller can usually be photocopied or scanned to PDF. All orders of this type will incur an initial fee of £12 which includes up to 10 A4 pages, postage or delivery by email or via an internet based file sharing site. Orders over 10 pages will be quoted on a page by page basis and further payment requested. (For large orders see note on handling & postal charges.)

Digital reproductions supplied in digital format

Where items cannot be photocopied, for preservation reasons, we offer digital alternatives.

Research quality digital copies

We can provide research quality jpeg images of items. These are completely legible but are not of a high enough quality for publication. They are taken with a standard hand-held digital SLR camera. Our initial £12 charge includes up to 5 digital working shots. Each extra digital shot will incur a further £1.35 charge. All images will be sent by email or via an internet based file sharing site. Should you require a print out of an image this would incur an additional cost of £3 per image plus postage. (See note on postal charges.)

Digital photography/scanning: electronic files

These are of a higher quality and are usually provided as jpegs. These images are taken using professional imaging equipment and edited to a high standard. If conservation work has to be carried out prior to image capture, these may take longer to produce. The handling charge includes the supply of images by email or via an internet based file sharing site.

Cost of each image: £6.55

Each order carries a handling charge of £6.55 which includes the supply of images by e-mail or file sharing depending on file sizes.

Digital photography/scanning: printed images

Additional charges will apply for providing printed images on high grade paper. See table below (prices per image):

Reproduction fee per image:

Commercial organizations	£70.85
Non profit making organizations	£32.70

Please note that, in the vast majority of cases, the item itself will still be in copyright. In some cases we may be able to provide advice on who the copyright owner is.
